About Us

Founder – Ken Garofalo

- ▶ Ken has years of experience working in the financial operations industry. Coupled with a long tested involvement with proprietary trading U.S. Equity and Options markets. He will use these experiences to drive innovation in the Blockchain and Financial worlds.
- ▶ Being a serial entrepreneur Ken is keen at identifying a problem with the way a market is currently operating. With steady leadership and a motivated belief in decentralization, Ken will bring forth many useful project implementations in 2018 and the years to come. As a CLL Token Holder you will be able to fully tap into this value added to inefficient markets.

What We Do?

Problem: Users require up to date news and information regarding cryptocurrencies. There is limited mainstream resources available to help onboard new users and stimulate seasoned users.

Solution: We have created an elaborate outlet to voice our ideas and educate to the masses of cryptocurrency investors.
