Attention Mining

► What is The Attention Mining?

- CryptoLiveLeak is a platform that seeks to bring value to subscribers by rewarding them for their attention through a unique process of Attention Mining. The process of Attention Mining is whereby you interact on the platform and within community. In turn, you're rewarded with CLL points which can be exchanged for CLL tokens. These tokens can be hodled or sold on an exchange such as token.store and folkdelta..

► How are CLL Points Calculated?

- 1 CLL Token = 100 CLL Points
- 100 CLL Points—Create an Account
- 10 CLL Points—View a Post
- 10 CLL Points—Comment on a Post
- 5 CLL Points—Every 15 Seconds of Video Watched
- 10 CLL Points—Refer a Visitor
- 20 CLL Points—Refer a Subscriber
- 1 CLL Point—Get a Like on your Post or Comment

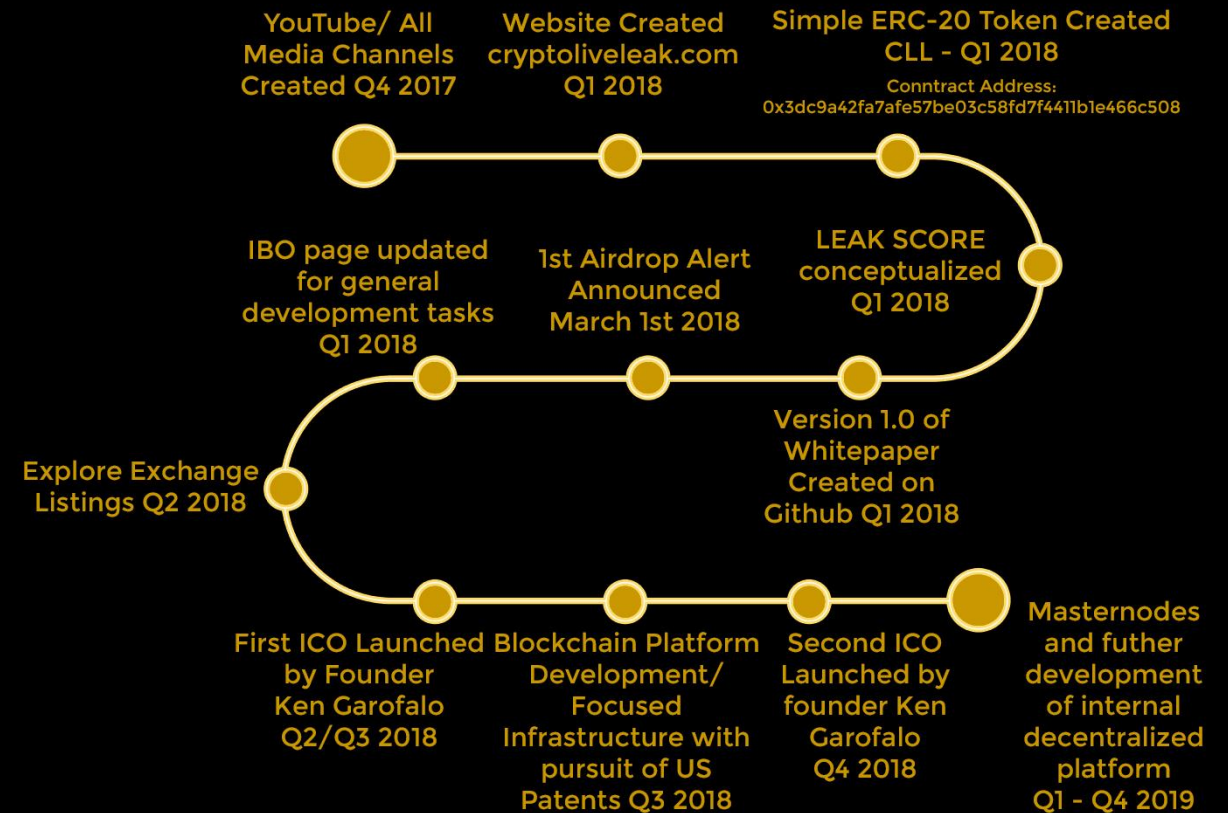

► Benefits of Attention Mining

- The exchange system on the site, which allows the trading of points to tokens, is user-friendly and well developed. In the future, as the platform grows, they will be looking to add more tokens. You can track your CLL point balance and compare your score with others on the leaderboard. Perhaps you can become the top earner on there!
- The higher your CLL POINTS is compared to the rest of the CryptoLiveLeak Token holders, you will receive better reward benefits.
- Future Plans for Holders to Participate in our future ICOs at Discounted Rates.
- Giveaways will be targeted at wallets with higher CLL Point Totals.
- Educational Classes and Merchandise will be sold – payment will be accepted in CLL TOKEN and Discounted Rates depending on your totals.
